Days 2–6 | August 23–27 | Skiing the Three Valleys

The Andes become your playground over six transformative days. Each day includes full-day training session with Warren Jobbitt and Tom Klingspohn, tailored to refine technique and boost confidence.

El Colorado features a volcano-shaped peak topping 10,800 feet, offering 360-degree skiing across groomed corduroy with sweeping views over Santiago. Valle Nevado rises to 12,100 feet, providing both perfectly groomed runs and exhilarating off-piste challenges. La Parva combines meticulous groomed slopes with accessible off-piste terrain; all set against dramatic Andean panoramas. Each evening, return to Hotel Chalet Valluga for après-ski treats and dinner, reflecting on your accomplishments.

Day 7 – August 28 | Final Ski Day – Transfer to Santiago

Complete your final day on snow under Tom and Warren's guidance, perfecting the skills you've developed throughout the week. In the afternoon, transfer to Santiago and settle into Hotel Pullman or a similar four-star property, ideally positioned to explore the city's restaurants, boutiques, and cultural highlights. The day culminates with a farewell dinner at a local restaurant, celebrating a week of exhilarating skiing and shared memories.

Day 8 – August 29 | Escape Santiago – Wine, Culture, and Color

Rise early and escape Santiago for a day of wine, culture, and color. Our journey begins in the renowned Casablanca Valley at the Casas del Bosque vineyard, where rolling vineyards stretch as far as the eye can see. On a private tour, discover the artistry behind the wines and savor a curated tasting of signature varietals, followed by a refined lunch at the celebrated Tanino restaurant, an experience that perfectly pairs with the valley's stunning scenery.

In the afternoon, we arrive in the enchanting city of Valparaíso. Lose yourself in its labyrinth of cobbled streets, where every corner bursts with vibrant street art and historic charm. Ride the iconic funiculars, explore lively plazas, and gaze over the Pacific Ocean from breathtaking viewpoints. The city's bohemian energy, colorful hillside homes, and panoramic vistas make for an unforgettable exploration.

As the sun sets, we return north to Santiago's Arturo Merino Benítez Airport, carrying with us the flavors, colors, and spirit of this remarkable region.

This private tour includes a Spanish- and English-speaking guide, private transport, and a Spanish-speaking driver, ensuring a seamless and immersive experience.
